This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

With the Eleventh Volume of the Lineage Book, we enter upon the second decade in our National Numbers, for this book records the names and lineages of our members from 10,001 to 11,000.

This volume also completes the epitomized history of our Society from the beginning in 1890, to the close of the year 1895.

There is an oft-repeated adage which we hope will prove true in relation to our Lineage Books. "First the blade, then the ear; afterward the full corn in the ear." We trust that those who now appreciate the value of the Lineage Book will sow the seed, by interesting others in this publication, which shall spring up and bear an abundant harvest, until there shall be no home of a Daughter of the American Revolution which shall not contain the Lineage Book as one of its choicest possessions.

MEMBERS

OF THE

NATIONAL SOCIETY.

THE NATIONAL SOCIETY

OF THE

Daughters of the American Revolution.

MISS KATE M. HIGHT. 10001

Born in Indiana.

Descendant of Thomas McCalla, of South Carolina.

Daughter of Milton Hight and Sarah McCalla, his wife.

Granddaughter of Samuel McCalla and Elizabeth Thompson, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of Thomas McCalla and Sarah Wayne Gardiner, his wife.

Thomas McCalla, 1777, enlisted in the Pennsylvania Line. In 1778 he removed South and served under Sumpter. He was captured and imprisoned at Camden, but through the heroic efforts of his wife, was released on parole. He died in 1811, at the age of fifty-five.

Also Nos. 2158, 4524, 9565.

MRS. ANNA CAMPBELL BAKER. 10002

Born in Indiana.

Wife of Albert Baker.

Descendant of Rev. William Johnston and of Col. Witter Johnston, of New York.

Daughter of Prof. John L. Campbell and Mary E. Johnston, his wife.

NOTE.—The number at the end of the name represents the National Number of the Member of the Society.

Granddaughter of Rev. James Hervey Johnston and Eliza Grover, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of Witter Johnston and Jane Campbell, his wife.

Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of Rev. William Johnston and Anne Miller Cummings, his wife.

William Johnston was a patriot preacher, who had the courage of his convictions, which made him obnoxious to the Tories and Indians. He died in 1783.

Witter Johnston was a pioneer of Cherry Valley, and one of the garrison in 1776 when it was attacked by Indians and Tories. The family escaped the massacre through the bravery of his brother Hughy, a boy of fourteen, who at great risk ran from the fort to the farm, a mile away, to warn them of the approach of the enemy. Witter Johnston served to the close of the war, and was among those who dined with Washington, when he visited that locality in 1783.

Also No. 9040.

MRS. ABBY SOPHIA MARKEE. 10003

Born in Indiana.

Wife of William A. Markee.

Descendant of Ephraim Warren, of Massachusetts.

Daughter of William D. Daniels and Sarah Fullerton, his wife.

Granddaughter of Stephen Daniels and Sophia Warren, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of William Warren and Hannah Dickinson, his wife.

Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of Ephraim Warren and Sarah Kezer, his wife.

Ephraim Warren was among those who responded to the first call to arms, when patriots left the field and fireside to fight for the freedom of the colonies.

Also Nos. 8391, 8568.

MRS. ANNIE ELIZABETH EVANS. 10004

Born in Indiana.

Wife of Adam H. Evans.

Descendant of Maj. Henry Heth, of Virginia.

Daughter of James H. Kintner and Elizabeth Bradford Heth, his wife.

Granddaughter of Richard McMahan Heth and Elizabeth Applegate, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of Henry Heth and Agnes McMahan, his wife.

Henry Heth, who was born in Ireland, commanded a company in the frontier wars. He served in the Virginia Continental Line during the Revolution. He located his bounty land near Pittsburg, and it is still known as "Heth's Delight." He died there in 1793, aged seventy-four. His sons William and John were members of the Cincinnati.

Also Nos. 629, 1211, 9188.

MRS. IRENE CRANE BRIGGS WARD. 10005

Born in Ohio.

Wife of Rev. S. Lawrence Ward.

Descendant of Abel Crane, of Massachusetts.

Daughter of Benjamin Bennett Briggs and Abby Crane, his wife.

Granddaughter of Levi Lankton Crane and Sophia Dillingham, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of Luther Crane and Sarah Strowbridge, his wife.

Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of Abel Crane and Jemima Burt, his wife.

Abel Crane served in the secret expeditions to Rhode Island. He died in 1801 at Berkley, where in 1718 he was born.

MRS. MARY PUTNAM MCKINNEY TERRELL. 10006

Born in Indiana.

Wife of William G. Farrell.

Descendant of Col. John McKinney, Maj. Gen. Israel Putnam and Maj. Israel Putnam, Jr.

Daughter of Judge John Taliaferro McKinney and Sarah Augusta Mayo, his wife.

Granddaughter of John McKinney and Sarah Taliaferro, his wife; Daniel Mayo and Mary Putnam, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of Israel Putnam, Jr., and Sarah Waldo, his wife.

Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of Israel Putnam and Hannah Pope, his wife.

John McKinney, 1778, at the age of nineteen, was lieutenant in the Pennsylvania Line. He served under Washington and Lafayette until the close of the war, and was a member of the Cincinnati. He died in Kentucky in 1833.

Also Nos. 1336, 8138.

Israel Putnam married at Danvers and the house is still standing, where his eldest son Israel was born. He was fifty-seven and had retired to his farm when he received the news of the conflict at Lexington. At the battle of Bunker Hill, he was a yeoman-warrior, fresh from the plow. He was one of the first four major generals appointed by Congress, and his record shows him to have been a patriot as noble in civil life as he was brave in battle. He died in 1790.

Also Nos. 118, 1205, 2091, 3285, 4155, 7651, 8276, 9193.

Israel Putnam, Jr., commanded a company, and was appointed aide to his father. He served until peace was declared.

MRS. AUGUSTA TERRELL VORSE. 10007

Born in Indiana.

Wife of Charles Searle Vorse.

Descendant of Col. John McKinney, Maj. Gen. Israel Putnam and Maj. Israel Putnam, Jr.

Daughter of William G. Terrell and Mary Putnam McKinney, his wife.

Granddaughter of Judge John Taliaferro McKinney and Sarah Augusta Mayo, his wife.

See No. 10006.

MRS. MARY ALICE WELLES COAN. 10008

Born in Illinois.

Wife of William Folwell Coan.

Descendant of Jacob Griswold and of Josiah Griswold, of Connecticut.

Daughter of Edwin Pilsbury Welles and Isabella Griswold, his wife.

Granddaughter of Thomas Harris Griswold and Delia Blinn, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of Josiah Griswold and Abigail Harris, his wife.

Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of Jacob Griswold.

Josiah Griswold, 1777, was a private in Capt. Bazaleel Bristol's company, and 1778 served under Capt. Elijah Wright, Col. Roger Enos' regiment.

Jacob Griswold, 1777, enlisted under Capt. Caleb Bull, Col. Samuel Webb's regiment. He was captured and exchanged in 1778 and served to the close of the war.

MRS. JUTIE MCINTOSH SHOECRAFT. 10009

Born in Connecticut.

Wife of Simon Shoecraft.

Descendant of John Loomis and of Phineas Blodgett, of Connecticut.

Daughter of Lucius Wolcott McIntosh and Eunice Gilbert, his wife.

Granddaughter of Robert McIntosh and Philena Blodgett, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of Phineas Blodgett and Damaris Loomis, his wife.

Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of John Loomis and Redexalina Wolcott, his wife.

John Loomis, 1776, turned out in Backus Light Horse for the relief of New York.

Phineas Blodgett was a private in Capt. Lemuel Stoughton's company at the Lexington Alarm. He served at Ticonderoga and in the Northern Department until honorably discharged in 1780. He died in 1810, aged fifty-four.

Also No. 7136.

MISS LEORA JOHNSON. 10010

Born in Iowa.
